DIPLOMA IN PHOTOSHOP

LESSON 5

CHECK

This out

ERIK JOHANSSON – creates incredible photo composites. Even better he gives you some insight into how these images are created! www.erikjo.com

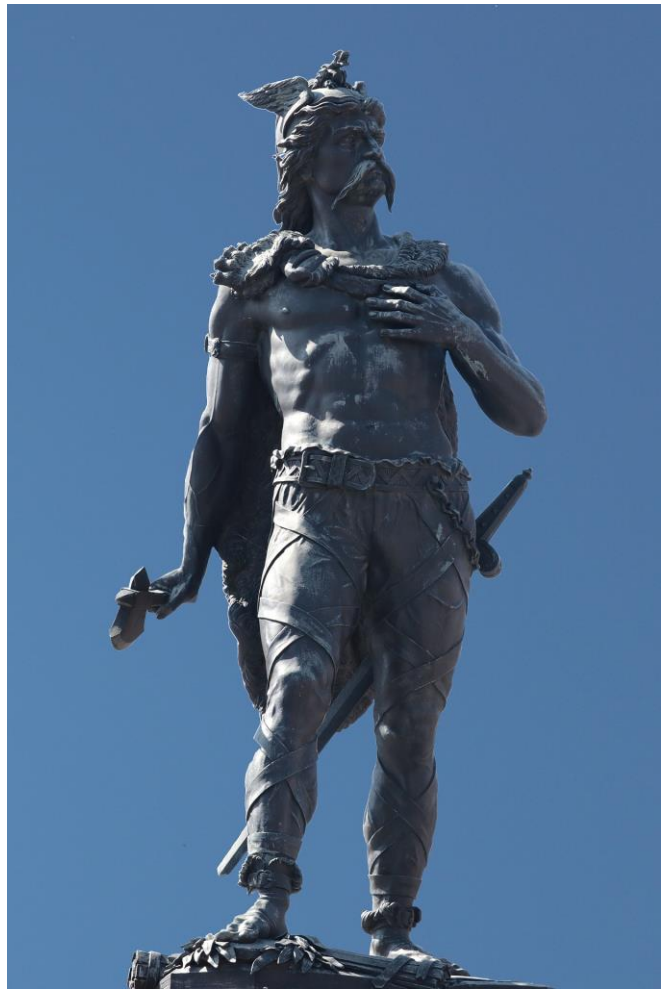
©Erik Johansson

Lesson 5

Composites

Create unreal images

What is an Image Composite?



Composites

- An image composite is one image stacked on top of another image.
- This is done with layers, masking and selections
- Compositing is the combining of visual elements from separate sources into single images.
- Often this is to create the illusion that all those images are parts of the overall image.
- Adjustments and various tools are needed to match colour and light.

Examples

Creative Masking

Image Composites

Layered Composite

Stacked Layers

Image View

Image Composites

Select and Mask Build

Select and Mask Options

Image

Select and Mask

Lesson Challenge

Create a composite using 3 or more elements