Expenses to consider

Charge a day rate

Scenario

Earning $ 3 000.00 per month, means you will charge $ 150.00 per day

Everything takes at least one day to make, so charge accordingly

Did you know?

You don’t need a 3+ year degree to become a graphic designer.  You need the power of imagination, visualisation and a passion to work hard.

Working on a tight budget

Working on a tight budget

- Manage your client’s expectations
- Invest your time wisely
- Plan your print-run (if needed)
- Size up your paper stock (if needed)
- Get the best from your suppliers

Manage your client’s expectations

Set the right budget to start off with by getting a good brief together.

Manage your client’s expectations.

Invest your time wisely

Give yourself enough time for the project.

Don’t create false expectations.

Under-promise and over-deliver.

Plan your print-run (if needed)

Print the right amount to start with.

If you're unsure, consult your printer.

Size up your paper stock (if needed)

Stick to standard paper sizes.

More efficient, economical and easier to obtain.

Get the best from your suppliers

Have a good relationship with your suppliers.

Not to knock their prices down but for mutual agreements and understanding.
