Social Media Marketing

Social Media for Non-Profit Organisations (NPOs)

Summary Notes

Contents

3 Foundation points

Social media for NPOs

Facebook for NPOs

4 Twitter for NPOs

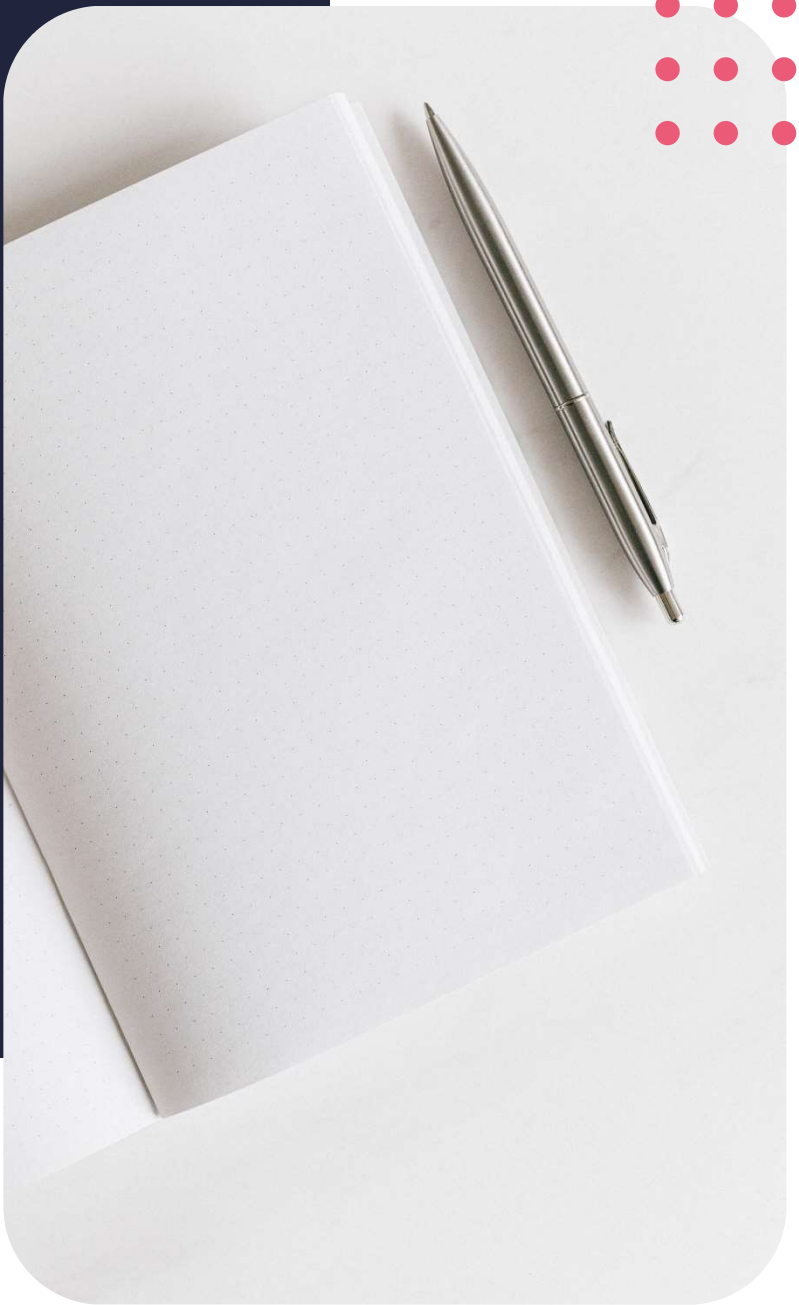
Instagram for NPOs

5 LinkedIn for NPOs

Strategy and tools

Tailoring your approach

6 10 Helpful Tools



Foundation points

- What do we know about social media marketing?
- What features are going to help us?
- What aspects do we need to consider?
- Facebook
  - Advertising
  - Donate now
  - Organic content
  - Reputation management
  - Engagement
- Twitter
  - Information focus
  - Online reputation management (ORM)
  - Update
  - Event
- Instagram
  - Visual/video content
  - Behind the scenes
  - Hashtag your brand
  - Show what you do
- LinkedIn
  - Professional content
  - Connections
  - Importance of high-quality content
  - Groups

Social media for NPOs

- Focus on organic content
- Reputation management and updates
- Humanise the organisation
- Make people part of your NPO
- Give value
- Interest of your audience
- Quality content

Facebook for SMEs

- How do charities engage with Facebook?
- What features are available to them? (Donate button)
- Does the approach change?

How to get Donate Now button

Set your Facebook Page category to Non-Profit Organisation

Edit page info > General tab > type non-profit organisation into categories > select from dropdown menu > click save changes > go back to Facebook business page > click on Add a button (top right) > choose make a purchase OR Donation > click donate > past link into donor box donation form in the text box > click add

Tips for NPOs

- Give clear information about you and your purpose
- Create authentic relationships
- Answer all comments, ask people to speak out, get people to show up, inspire people
- Show off your non-profit using video
- Post photos from behind the scenes at your non-profit
- Try Facebook LIVE
- Have giveaways of bumper stickers, shirts and other branded goodies
- Hold a contest on your page
- Connect with other businesses and non-profits Facebook pages
- Celebrate achievements and important milestones
- Entertain
- Provide value
- Visually appealing
- Give insight
- Encourage action

Twitter for NPOs

- Post information on Twitter
- Clear message and end goal
- What is the focus of your posts?
- Use Twitter Donate Now button

Twitter tips

- The best content = stats, lists, how-to's and quotes
- Use hashtags
- Promote blog content on Twitter and vice-versa
- Post other articles
- Tweet all sorts of updates (almost)
- Participate in Live Tweet Chats and use pools
- Connect all of your social channels

Instagram for NPOs

- Connections on an emotional level
- Who are your donors?
- Where is the visual proof that your concept is working?
- Where do we drive our users?
- What does our content need to show?

Instagram tips

- Show people whose lives you are changing
- Show clearly what you are doing
- Have a unique hashtag
- Post content in line with your mission
  - Events
  - Highlight volunteer work
  - User generated content
  - Behind the scenes
- Promote your campaigns, website and merchandise
- Thank your supporters

LinkedIn for NPOs

- Establish a presence
  - Logo and up-to-date information
- Start a Network
  - Encourage your current supporters, board of directors, staff, volunteers, donors and friends to connect
- Market your page
- Use status updates
- Start own group

LinkedIn tips

- Create showcase pages
- Drive more followers to join your network
- Stay active
- Find board members and volunteers
  - 90% off job posting discount to non-profits
- Provide value in terms of information and quality

Strategy and tools

Viral Marketing

- Interactive
- Popular culture
- Infographic campaigns
- Storytelling
- Talk to the people your organisation supports to find a story or idea
- Thank your people and show how the campaign is going
- Ignore high production costs, people will buy into your organisation if what your sharing
- is honest, unique and authentic

Tailoring your approach

- Who are you hoping to engage with?
- Think about:
  - Localisation
  - Posting schedule
  - Audience interests
- How does your audience view your brand?
- What is the goal of your content?
  - If you want to receive donations - use the Donate button
  - If you want to build your brand - use the Like button
  - If you want users to subscribe to your mailing list - use the Subscribe button

Other marketing efforts

- Website
- Email marketing
- Search Engine Optimisation (SEO)
- Events
- User generated content (UGC)

Strategy

- Define social media's role in your NPOs communication strategy
- Determine what you want to accomplish:
  - Community engagement and education
  - Brand building and reputation management
  - Program recruitment
  - Fundraising
- Identify your target audience
- Choose the right networks
- Create a content strategy
  - Pictures
  - Videos
  - Text
- Posting frequency
- Prioritise engagement
- Empower your advocates and cross-promote your content
  - Start a private group
  - Promote via other communication channels
  - Provide sample posts
- Track and Measure your results

10 Helpful Tools

- Charity.gofundme.com Crowdfunding platform ideally for fundraising
- Amazon Smile You can set up your organization to receive donations from Amazon purchases
- Classy, First Giving & Blackbaud Peer to peer fundraising
- Mention & Social Mention Social media monitoring
- Buffer Social media scheduling and management 50% OFF for NPO
- Google for Non-Profits Discounts on products for NPO
- Piryx.com Web payments for non-profits
- Bloomerang.co Fundraising management & software
- Donate.ly Online donations for your website
- Charitweet.com quick and simple microdonations with a tweet